

Academic Year 2025-26

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME

Orange City Institute of Management has an NSS Unit comprising 100 students. The National Service Scheme (NSS), popularly known as NSS, is a major activity designed to engage college and university volunteers in community services on a voluntary basis. As one of the key schemes in educational programs, NSS aims to develop fully responsible citizens. Volunteers participating in the scheme unite under one roof with shared goals and objectives. Experience has shown that NSS also motivates students toward personality development. The NSS experience sensitizes both teachers and students to social realities. Young people serve as the most effective agents for social change and play a vital role in the country's development. The scheme is implemented through a variety of activities that require students to understand the community and actively participate in its development.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the NSS is that student enables to understand the needs of the community and the nature of the social consciousness. The volunteers are provided the opportunities to develop their leadership qualities, skills, and awareness about national integration. NSS is committed for the self-development of the students, people's participation in it and the collective organization collaborate with the scheme

The main objectives of National Service Scheme (NSS) are

- To understand the community in which they work
- To understand themselves in relation to their community

- To identify the needs and problems of the community and involve them in problem-solving
- To develop among themselves a sense of social and civic responsibility
- To utilize their knowledge in finding practical solutions to individual and community problems
- To develop competence required for group-living and sharing of responsibilities
