CANCER DETECTION CAMP AT GREEN HEAVEN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT & RESEARCH

16TH DECEMBER' 2019

Today our lifestyle has changed rapidly than what it was a few years ago. Changed lifestyle along with increasing pollution, excessive use of pesticides, food adulteration and unwanted addictions have brought forth many agonies for humanity in the form of diseases. It is said that prevention is always better than cure. Lifestyle diseases such as has spread its tentacles all over irrespective of rural or urban population. In view of growing threats of cancer and enabling the rural masses about its ill effects, Green Heaven Institute of Management & Research located at Rui, near Wardha road felt the urge to create an awareness among the rural masses about cancer which is haunting humanity like never before. Director Dr. Anil Sharma proposed the idea to organize a Cancer Awareness Camp to Dr. Medha Dixit, Deputy General Manager (training and development) at the National Cancer Institute (NCI), Jamtha, Nagpur. She happily agreed and took forward the idea with an orientation program on cancer for MBA students of GHIMR, Nagpur.

In the orientation program on 5th December'2019, the students were enlightened about cancer, its types and the possible preventive remedies a person can take to keep it at bay. Dr. Dixit, Mrs. Sonashree Deshpande and their team at NCI shortlisted the MBA students through a process of Group Discussion and Personal Interview. A team of 13 dedicated students was created from the students. Camp experts from NCI headed by Dr. Dixit provided extensive and exhaustive training regarding how to create an awareness about a sensitive issue like cancer among villagers. The enlightened students, after training became enthusiastic volunteers fully prepared for advancing a social cause.

The volunteers spread the message to the villagers of Rui, Panjari, Pevtha, Banwadi and Varoda and counselled them about cancer, its impact on our body and the possible preventive actions. These female volunteers took great pains to communicate ladies of these villages about cancer related to females. They campaigned for over a week and the fruits of their effort were seen on the camp day. On tuesday December 17, Green Heaven Institute in association with NCI organized the Cancer Awareness Camp at the college premises at Rui. The camp saw over 120 overwhelming villages including young and old males and females who turned up for the event. Dr. Pawan Argade, Camp Co-ordinator at NCI and his team looked after checkup and post check up consultation. On behalf of Green Heaven Institute, Prof. Sameer Padole along with Dr. Rajani Kumar, Academic Coordinator took care of the necessary arrangements. SAHAJ YOGA CAMP

FEBRUARY 5 2020

Yoga provides concentration, self-determination and self-motivation, which is a highly desirable trait in students as they need to be remain motivated and determined during their journey on the career path. Keeping this objective in mind, a session on Sahaj Yoga was conducted for the students on 7th Feb 2020. Yoga trainers, Mr.VivekChoudhary and Ms.ShaliniChoudhary explained the importance of yoga in students life and stressed that it can really be a game changer for a student. It is difficult for a student to stay motivated throughout, pertaining to the ups and downs in life. Yoga is the union of physical, mental and spiritual aspects of the body.

Students were taught simple exercise and were asked to practice those daily. The trainers stressed that through the practice of Sahaja Yoga, our awareness gains a new dimension where the absolute truth of vibrations can be felt on our central nervous system and our palms. The vibrations are emanated from the palms of the person as a result of the awakening of the Kundalini. As a result of this experience, our spiritual ascent takes place effortlessly and physical, mental and emotional balance is achieved as a by-product of the self-realisation and Sahaja Yoga Meditation. The exercises consisted of combining physical postures with breathing techniques with the help of meditation and hence relaxation. According to ancient Indian texts, Yoga can open up all the senses of your body and keep us healthy and fit.
